The program is broken down into two stages:

Stage One - Applications are open to production companies and screen businesses who are able to provide opportunities for mid-career practitioners to gain experience in senior crew and leadership roles identified in the list below.

- 1st Assistant Director
- Art Director

- Line Producer
- Location Manager
- Post Production Supervisor
- Production Accountant
- Production Manager
- Special Effects (SFX) Supervisor
- Sound Designer

Approved companies will receive funding of up to $50,000 for each opportunity supported under this program. An exception to the $50,000 funding limit may be considered for extended placements where the applicant is able to demonstrate significant benefits to the industry.

Applicants may offer to provide multiple opportunities under this program for the same role or across multiple roles.

Stage Two - following each Stage One deadline decision, applications will open for mid-career practitioners who would like to progress their careers in one of the BTL crew roles that have been identified above as part of Stage One of the program. More information on Stage Two of the program will be published here once available.

Aims & Objectives

The aims of BTL Next Step are to:

- provide opportunities for established mid-career practitioners to step up into senior BTL crew and leadership roles that have been identified as experiencing shortages;
- increase the number of experienced and credited 1st Assistant Directors, Art Directors, Editors, Line Producers, Location Managers, Post Production Supervisors, Production Accountants, Production Managers, Special Effects (SFX) Supervisors and Sound Designers working in film, series television or other significant formats, thereby addressing significant current constraints in workforce capacity in these roles;
- increase diversity, equity and inclusion in the screen sector by supporting the career development of workers from diverse backgrounds that reflect contemporary Australian life.

Who is eligible to apply for Stage One?

- Applicants for Stage One will be production companies and screen businesses who are able to provide opportunities for mid-career practitioners in the ten identified roles.
- Applicants for Stage One must be Australian companies. You will need to read our Terms of Trade to ensure you are eligible for Screen Australia funding.
- Applicants do not need to already be receiving funding from Screen Australia. However, those that are may apply for additional support under this program (which will be provided separately as grant funding).
- Projects must be of scale and well known to Screen Australia AND/OR to be produced by reputable production companies with a strong track record.
- Screen Australia is committed to increasing diversity throughout our sector, both in the content that we see and play on our screens and in the teams who make it. We want to see applications from companies led by and opportunities being provided for First Nations people; people who are from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds; people who are Deaf/deaf or disabled; women, people who are non-binary or gender diverse; people who identify as LGBTIQ+; and people located in regional and remote areas.

What will be funded?

- Stage One of this program provides funding to production companies and screen businesses to provide opportunities for mid-career practitioners in the identified roles above to be mentored, undertake a placement and attain a credit that will progress them along their career pathway.
- These opportunities will subsequently be filled by applicants through Stage Two of the program, being mid-career crew practitioners for whom this credit making scheme will elevate and accelerate their career trajectory. These applicants will have 2+ years of professional experience, have reportable credits, and will be ready to step up into the relevant opportunity and earn a credit.

- Each opportunity should put Placees in the centre of a production and expose them to relationships, networks, connections and skills enhancing experiences.
- Screen Australia will contribute a maximum of up to $50,000 towards each placement (funding will be directly related to the length of the opportunity). Requests of over $50,000 may be considered in exceptional circumstances for extended placements where applicants are able to demonstrate that there will be significant benefits to the industry.
- Funds are to be used as a contribution to:
 - The costs of employing the practitioner at the applicable recognised industry rate including wage (at least award minimum rates), superannuation, overtime etc excluding host company overheads or capital expenditure;
 - The costs of a supervisor/mentor, if not otherwise covered by the applicant, to mitigate risks involved with engaging a less experienced HOD;
 - An allocation for the host production company/business to cover on-costs of onboarding and hosting the Placee.
- The length and remuneration of each Placement will be determined by the nature of the format and schedule of the given production but will cover pre-production, production and some post and the production and mentor/host production company must commit to the awarding of a credit for the Placee.
- Application budgets may include expenditure for accessibility, support or other costs for the implementation of the proposed activities to ensure opportunities being provided are culturally safe and accessible.
- Additionally, Screen Australia will contribute up to $3,000 towards relocation costs and/or $3,000 towards carer/support costs, if required, to support Placees from anywhere in Australia to undertake placement opportunities. Screen Australia will review requests for contributions towards relocation and career/support costs through Stage Two of the program and these costs will be paid to the selected Placee via the host company.
- Placement opportunities that are approved in Stage One will be included in a public call-out as part of BTL Next Step Stage Two.
- As part of the assessment and selection process for BTL Next Step Stage Two, successful applicants from Stage One will be required to review the applications received for their opportunity, interview up to 3 short-listed candidates (with a Screen Australia representative present at the interviews) and liaise with Screen Australia as required for the assessment of Stage Two. Screen Australia will have final approval of successful applicants.

What will not be funded?

- Funding cannot be used to fund or substitute a paid crew role on any production/project. Funding cannot be used for professional placements or attachments that are a requirement of Screen Australia, state screen agency or covered as part of another industry program.
- Funding cannot be used retrospectively nor can it be used for opportunities for individuals who are already working at the grade or in the role they are moving up to unless there is a detailed case that the step up will mean they are working differently (e.g., moving from one genre/format to another).

- Funding cannot be used to support Placees (selected in Stage Two) who are currently employed by the production company or screen business.
- Placees are only accepted via a successful Stage Two application and assessment process, and are not able to begin a placement retrospectively, or prior to an approved placement start date.
