

Upcoming Production Report February 2016

This is a select list of TV drama in pre-production, production or post-production in Australia.

Please note:

- Producers and production companies can be inundated with calls regarding work and may not welcome unsolicited calls. Their preference is to employ via crewing agencies.
- Where contact details are omitted in this report, they are unavailable for publication. Some producers and production companies request that their contact details are not published.
- Foreign productions predominantly employ a Line Producer to set up the production office in Australia two to three months (at the earliest) before principal photography date. Screen Australia will not be able to provide production office contact details before then.
- Please note that details for some titles are incomplete, particularly if they are in early stages of production.

You can also keep up to date with industry news and further upcoming production information through:

- IF (Inside Film) magazine (monthly and online): www.if.com.au (02) 9660 2113
- The Encore Directory and The Production Book contain lists of production companies, producers and crewing agencies.

And most of the state agencies list productions online:

Cast	Richard Grieve, Alex Babic, Miriam Margoyles, Simone Craddock, Jeff Rawle, Akiya Henry, Jason Callender, Kathryn Drysdale
Duration (mins)	624
Synopsis	Based on the original seventies Penguin books our series tells the story of our three Gumble heroes Tink, Bounce and Willi. Gumbles can squash and stretch into any imaginable shape without being hurt. They love nothing more than to 'gumble' all day long, which means crazy, stretchy, jack-ass style capers around their junk valley. They just have to avoid capture by the Bottersnikes - the stinkiest, ugliest, laziest and most mean spirited of creatures. They eat mattress stuffing and rusty nails and like to put the gumbles to work whenever they can lay their claws on them.

Peter Brock

Length MiniSeries
Content Drama
Genres Drama
Producer Kerrie Mainwaring
Director Geoff Bennett
Writer Justin Monjo, Adam Todd
Cast Matthew Le Nevez, Ella Scott Lynch, Brendan Cowell, Natalie Bassingthwaite, Steve Bisley
Duration (mins) 176
Synopsis Brocky will set the record straight about Peter Brock. It will chart the amazing highs of his brilliant racing career as well as the lows of his personal life... the three marriages, the many affairs, accusations of wife bashing, an ugly, public split from Holden, and of course the farce that was the Polariser. Controversial and colourful with a dash of humour, Brocky is very much part of the social fabric of 70's and 80's Australia. A time when you were either a Ford or a Holden man. It will be an action packed, drama filled and sex-fuelled sprint to the finish line, set to an all Australian pubrock soundtrack.

Synopsis What happens when a hugely lucrative, multi-generational family business is threatened by forces both from without and within? The Warner family are Pitt Street farmers. Warners Inc is a blue chip, top end of town primary producer that owns huge land holdings across NSW, Victoria and Queensland. Its produce supplies all the major supermarket chains across Australia, turning over tens of millions of dollars a year. When third generation CEO and family patriarch Jeremy Warner is killed in a freak accident, it triggers a power struggle, a battle for control of the family business and destiny.
 Youngest son, 26 year-old Matthew Warner, is passionate about the family firm what they do. He and his Dad shared a love of the land and a love for the cut and thrust of big business. But in the wake of Jeremy's death, the family has a decision to make: sell out to a foreign conglomerate or save the family company built up over generations. By the terms of Jeremy's will, every family member gets a say in the future of the company. Matthew, his brother Pete, sister Olivia and his mother Wendy each have a vote – and they're equally divided.
 Which is when Matthew makes a startling discovery. Unknown to everyone, his father had an affair years ago... And another child. Born only a few months after Matthew. Rubv

Content	Drama
Genres	Action adventure, Drama
Producer	Helen Panckhurst, Andrew Walker
Director	Peter Templeman, Jennifer Leacey
Writer	John Ridley, Tim Hobart, Kirsty Fisher, Richard Bell
Cast	Rebecca Gibney, Geraldine Hakewill, Nicholas Bell, Steve Peacocke, Ryan Corr
Duration (mins)	270
Synopsis	Happiness comes from the achievement of goals right? That's what accountant Chelsea was always told. So what if you've achieved much of what you were meant to by the age of 33, but find yourself taking fistfuls of anti-depressants just to get through the day? And what would happen if, like Lola, you'd always partied the hardest, lived every irresponsible moment no matter what the cost, but then reached 48 and realised the cupboards were bare and your children were gone? Realised that when the music stopped there were no chairs left and the only job you could get was as a checkout operator in a supermarket chain? What would happen? Nothing. Because the cards you're dealt at the start are the cards you'll die with in the end, and you only get one real shot at happiness. But what if a second chance did come along – except it was wrapped in a disaster and nearly impossible to recognise? That's what happens to Chelsea and Lola as they wait for a bus on a deserted rainy street. A street where every morning at 5.45am they have waited silently for the bus to take them to their respective workplaces. Except on this particular rainy morning as they stand in the bus shelter hidden from view, a car slowly rolls down the street coming to a stop against the curb - the driver slumped over the wheel.
