 - 2.1.20 not enter into any Marketing Agreement which is inconsistent with any of the rights or entitlements of any Investor set out in this Agreement without that Investor's prior approval;
 - 2.1.21 on request, provide the Investors promptly with all information and documents relating to the production and/or the Marketing of the Film;
 - 2.1.22 ensure that the Film is of a technical quality suitable and fully acceptable for international theatrical release (if applicable), television broadcast and video distribution; and
 - 2.1.23 all reports including but not limited to the cost reports, Final Cost Report and the Marketing Reports which it is required to provide to the Investors under this Agreement will be accurate and complete.
- 2.2 The Producer and the Production Company warrant and represent, for the benefit of each of the Investors, severally that:
- 2.2.1 each of the Producer and the Production Company is a corporation validly existing according to the laws of the place of its incorporation and is eligible to receive each Investor's Investment in accordance with its terms of trade published as at the date of this Agreement;

- 2.2.2 each of the Producer and the Production Company has the full capacity and authority to enter into this Agreement, and to perform all of the obligations imposed on it under this Agreement;
- 2.2.3 the Budget and the Budgeted Cost are adequate to make the Film based on the Script and to meet all costs incurred in performing each of the obligations of the Producer and the Production Company according to the Transaction Documents;
- 2.2.4 the Producer owns, or has the exclusive right to obtain prior to the Completion Date, the Underlying Rights in the Underlying Work and the Script;
- 2.2.5 the Producer or the Production Company has procured, or will in a timely manner procure, in respect of moral rights such consents and/or waivers as the Producer is obliged to procure under each Marketing Agreement;
- 2.2.6 the Producer or the Production Company has entered into, or will in a timely manner enter into, written, enforceable agreements with each of the Principal Personnel and Principal Participants;
- 2.2.7 if the Film is to incorporate a recording of a live performance, in respect of performers moral rights, the Producer or the Production Company has procured, or will in a timely manner procure, the consents of all of the performers included in each live performance in the Film (other than as contained in Archive Material) to any treatment of the performance in the Film which could amount to a derogatory treatment within the meaning of Copyright Act 1968 (Cth);
- 2.2.8 the production and Marketing of the Film does not and will not:
 - (a) infringe any person's intellectual property rights; or
 - (b) create any Claim (including any Claim in relation to the title of the Film);
- 2.2.9 neither the Producer nor the Production Company has allowed, or will allow, the creation of a Security Interest in the Film Assets, except as provided in the Transaction Documents;
- 2.2.10 neither the Producer nor the Production Company has done or omitted to do anything to allow or induce any person, (except as provided in the Transaction Documents), to claim any entitlement that conflicts with the rights of any Investor acquired by this Agreement and neither of them will do anything having such an effect without the prior approval of that Investor;
- 2.2.11 neither the Producer nor the Production Company has done or omitted to do anything which prejudices the interests of the Investors acquired by this Agreement;
- 2.2.12 there is no material inconsistency between the terms of this Agreement, on the one hand, and on the other hand any other Funding Agreement, Transaction Document or any Marketing Agreement to which the Producer is a party, or which the Producer has approved, unless otherwise approved by the Investors;
- 2.2.13 neither of the Producer nor the Production Company has dealt with the Copyright or the Underlying Rights except as revealed by this Agreement, or entered any agreements or arrangements that are inconsistent with the exclusive licence granted to them to produce and Market the Film under this Agreement;

- 2.2.14 other than payments due according to any industrial instrument (including Residuals), each of the Producer and the Production Company has disclosed to the Investors all bonus entitlements, deferrals or other such payments due or which may become due to creative contributors to the making of the Film according to any agreement, arrangement or understanding except those payable from the Producer's share of Gross Receipts;
- 2.2.15 each Transaction Document, and other Marketing Agreement to which the Producer is a party, or which the Producer has approved, is valid, binding and enforceable according to its terms;
- 2.2.16 all information provided by the Producer or the Production Company concerning the Transaction Documents and other Marketing Agreements is true in all material respects and is not, by omission or otherwise, misleading;
- 2.2.17 neither the execution nor the performance of their obligations according to the Transaction Documents or any other Marketing Agreement to which either or both of them is a party, or any transaction contemplated by those documents, will violate any provision of any document or agreement that is binding upon them or their assets and, except as provided by the Transaction Documents and other Marketing Agreements approved by Screen Australia, does not and will not:
 - (a) create any Security Interest in any of the assets of the Producer or the Production Company; or
 - (b) accelerate or, subject to the giving of notice or otherwise, contingently accelerate, any obligation under any agreement relating to the indebtedness of the Producer or the Production Company;
- 2.2.18 no Event of Default has occurred;
- 2.2.19 in relation to each of the Producer and the Production Company:
 - (a) no Claim is current, pending or, to its knowledge, threatened against it for more than $20,000;
 - (b) it can, subject to the timely payment of Investments, pay its debts as and when they fall due; and
 - (c) it is not the subject of an Insolvency Event.
- 2.3 Each warranty and representation set out in Clause 2.2 is given on and as of the date of this Agreement and deemed to be repeated as at the date on which each Instalment is paid, and survives termination of this Agreement for any reason.
- 2.4 The Producer and the Production Company must notify the Investors in writing immediately on becoming aware of any actual, potential or threatened breach of any of the provisions of Clause 2.1 or 2.2.
- 2.5 If requested in writing by an Investor, the Producer and the Production Company must promptly provide that Investor with duly executed copies of any and all documents or agreements listed in Clauses 2.1 and 2.2.

3. INDEMNITY IN FAVOUR OF THE INVESTORS

- 3.1 The Producer and the Production Company must jointly and severally indemnify each Investor, and keep each Investor indemnified, against:

- 3.1.1 any Claim; and
 - 3.1.2 any costs and expenses (including reasonable legal costs and expenses) incurred by that Investor,
- arising from or in connection with:
- 3.1.3 a breach by the Producer or the Production Company of any warranty, representation, undertaking or any other term of this Agreement and the occurrence of any Event of Default; and
 - 3.1.4 the use or sale of the Production Assets.

3.2 This indemnity survives the termination of this Agreement for any reason.

4. PRODUCER OFFSET AND PRODUCTION OF THE FILM AS AN AUSTRALIAN FILM

4.1 The Production Company must:

- 4.1.1 produce and Complete the Film in accordance with the Provisional Certificate;
- 4.1.2 obtain the Final Certificate as soon as possible after the Completion Date;
- 4.1.3 provide the Investors with a copy of the Final Certificate promptly on receipt; and
- 4.1.4 on request by an Investor, provide that Investor with any information or documents relating to the issue or proposed issue of, and compliance with, the Provisional Certificate and the Final Certificate.

4.2 The Production Company must pay the amount of the Producer Offset Proceeds in accordance with the Producer Offset Cashflow Documentation.

4.3 Despite any other provision of this Agreement, the Production Company, having given notice in writing to the Investors, may commence a members' voluntary winding up following Completion of the Film. Upon such winding up taking effect any obligations of the Production Company under this Agreement that have not been fulfilled by the Production Company, shall become the obligations and liabilities of the Producer.

4.4 If the indebtedness of the Producer or the Production Company under the Producer Offset Cashflow Documentation exceeds the amount of the Producer Offset Proceeds, any shortfall that is not provided for in the Budget shall be the sole liability of the Producer or the Production Company (as the case may be), and under no circumstances shall the Producer, the Production Company or the Producer Offset Lender have any right of recourse to Gross Receipts to extinguish such indebtedness.

5. INVESTORS' UNDERTAKING TO INVEST

5.1 Subject to the terms of this Agreement each Investor agrees to contribute its Investment to the Budgeted Cost and to pay its Investment into the Investment Account or if there is no Investment Account, into the Production Account, according to the Drawdown Schedule.

5.2 The Producer must transfer funds received in the Investment Account into the Production Account as and when required for expenditure on the production of the Film by the Production Company.

- 5.3 If any Investor (other than Screen Australia) or the Producer fails to provide any part of its investment according to the Finance and Film Assets Schedule (or within two Business Days), the Producer and the Production Company must:
- 5.3.1 immediately notify each of the other Investors in writing; and
 - 5.3.2 use best endeavours to meet the shortfall.
- 5.4 No Investor is under any obligation to meet any shortfall.
- 5.5 The Producer and the Production Company must obtain the Investors' prior approval of the terms on which it meets any shortfall and the agreements incorporating those terms.

6. CONDITION PRECEDENT TO INVESTORS' PAYMENT OBLIGATIONS

- 6.1 It is a condition precedent to an Investor paying any Instalment that:
- 6.1.1 each Transaction Document which is, in accordance with the Transaction Documents Schedule, due to be provided at the time such Instalment is due is provided to that Investor and, where such document requires execution for it to take effect, is fully executed by all parties on terms and in a form acceptable to that Investor;
 - 6.1.2 for the first Instalment, the Producer provides the Investors with an opinion at the Producer's cost from a solicitor qualified in the Investors' opinion to give such an opinion, that:
 - (a) the Producer or the Production Company owns, or has the exclusive right to acquire all Underlying Rights (other than the Underlying Rights in respect of the Selected Music and Archive Material) necessary for the production, completion and Marketing of the Film and all Spin-Offs, Sequels and Remakes;
 - (b) the Producer will, subject to the terms of this Agreement, own the exclusive Copyright in the Film (including the Film Materials) on the Film coming into existence or upon the assignment under Clause 8.1 of this Agreement, whichever is earlier; and
 - (c) is otherwise in a form approved by the Investors,and the Investors will rely on that opinion;
 - 6.1.3 there is no subsisting uncured Event of Default;
 - 6.1.4 the insurances required by Clause 15, which are required to be in effect at the date that the Instalment is payable, are in effect;
 - 6.1.5 each party to each Transaction Document and any other Marketing Agreement has complied with all its obligations contained in that document; and
 - 6.1.6 without limitation to Clause 6.1.5, each Investor, Marketplace Contributor and each other contributor to the Budgeted Cost has made such payments to the Producer or the Production Company (as the case may be) due at the date of the relevant Instalment.
- 6.2 Any Investor may in its absolute discretion elect to extend the time for satisfaction of a condition precedent by notice in writing to the Producer and the Production Company.

7. INVESTOR FEES

- 7.1 The Producer must pay each Investor Fee from the first Instalment of the applicable Investor's Investment.
- 7.2 The Producer irrevocably directs each Investor to deduct and retain its Investor Fee from the first Instalment of that Investor's Investment in satisfaction of the Producer's obligation to pay that Investor Fee.
- 7.3 The Producer or alternatively the Production Company at the direction of the Producer, will provide to each Investor a tax invoice for the first Instalment payable by that Investor (notwithstanding the offsetting of the applicable Investor Fee against such first Instalment) and each Investor shall provide to the Producer a tax invoice in respect of its Investor Fee. Each party will then account to the Australian Tax Office for GST (less any available input tax credits).

8. OWNERSHIP OF FILM ASSETS

- 8.1 Immediately on execution of this Agreement, the Production Company assigns to the Producer all its present and future right, title and interest in the Film Assets for $1 (receipt of which is acknowledged).
- 8.2 When each Investor pays (or contributes in kind, in the case of non-cash Investments) its first Instalment, the Producer assigns (or sub-licences in relation to the Selected Music and any Archive Material) to that Investor the proportion of the present and future Film Assets, as specified in the Film Assets Split.
- 8.3 Upon the assignment described in Clause 8.2 to each Investor, the Producer and the Investors own the Film Assets as tenants in common.
- 8.4 The Investors and the Producer grant the Production Company an exclusive licence to use the Film Assets throughout the world to produce and Complete the Film subject to the terms of this Agreement.
- 8.5 The interests of the Production Company acquired by Clause 8.4 are contractual only and do not create any proprietary interest in the Film Assets in favour of the Production Company.
- 8.6 The Production Company and the Producer must take, and ensure that all Marketing Licensees under Marketing Agreements to which the Producer is a party take, all reasonable steps to register, maintain, prosecute infringements of and defend Claims in respect of the Copyright.
- 8.7 The Producer and the Production Company must immediately notify the Investors if it becomes aware of any Claim with respect to the Film Assets and, upon an Investor's written request, provide that Investor with further information in relation to such a Claim.
- 8.8 Neither the Producer nor the Production Company may settle any Claim relating to the Film Assets without Screen Australia's prior consent. Screen Australia must not consent to the settlement of any Claim by the Producer under this Clause, without taking steps to consult with the other Investors, where reasonably practicable.
- 8.9 Screen Australia may, subject to any requirements of a relevant insurance policy, assume control of any Claim commenced by or against the Production Company or the Producer relating to the Film Assets, but will not settle any Claim without taking steps to consult with the other Investors, where reasonably practicable.

- 8.10 The Producer or the Production Company must register and obtain an International Standard Audiovisual Number (ISAN) for the Film and must notify the Investors of that number as soon as practicable after registration.

9. INVESTOR WARRANTIES

- 9.1 Each of the Investors severally warrant to each other and to the Producer and the Production Company that:
- 9.1.1 it is a validly existing entity with the full capacity and authority to enter into and to perform all of the obligations imposed on it under this Agreement;
 - 9.1.2 each Transaction Document to which it is a party is valid, binding and enforceable according to its terms;
 - 9.1.3 the licences granted to the Production Company according to Clause 8.4 and to the Producer according to Clause 19.1 are not subject to any Security Interest other than as contemplated by the Transaction Documents;
 - 9.1.4 neither the execution nor the performance of its obligations according to those Transaction Documents to which it is a party, nor any transaction contemplated by those documents, will breach any provision of any document or agreement that is binding upon it or its assets and, except as provided by the Transaction Documents, does not and will not:
 - (a) create any Security Interest in any of its assets; or
 - (b) accelerate or, subject to the giving of notice or otherwise, contingently accelerate, any obligation under any agreement relating to its indebtedness;
 - 9.1.5 it has sufficient funds to meet its obligations under this Agreement; and
 - 9.1.6 it is not the subject of an Insolvency Event.

10. INVESTOR'S PRODUCTION APPROVAL RIGHTS

- 10.1 The Producer and the Production Company must meaningfully consult with the Investors and obtain the Investors' prior approval in respect of any:
- 10.1.1 amendment to any Transaction Document;
 - 10.1.2 change to the Principal Personnel or Principal Participants;
 - 10.1.3 reallocation of more than 20% of any budget category in the Budget;
 - 10.1.4 change to the Budgeted Cost;
 - 10.1.5 variation to the Budget which reduces or is likely to reduce QAPE;
 - 10.1.6 change to the Production Schedule; and
 - 10.1.7 material amendment to the Script.
- 10.2 The Producer or the Production Company (as applicable) shall invite each Investor to attend any:
- 10.2.1 viewing of the Film for any other Investor; and

10.2.2 test screening of the Film,

10.2.3 giving no less than seven days notice in each case.

10.3 Subject to the rights granted to any broadcaster under a Transaction Document, if the Film changes after the Investors view the Film on Completion, the Producer or the Production Company shall ensure that the Investors shall have a further reasonable opportunity to view the Film before its first broadcast.

11. COMPLETION GUARANTEE

11.1 The Producer or the Production Company must pay the fee due to the Completion Guarantor set out in the Completion Guarantee from the first Instalment.

11.2 The parties agree that the terms of the Completion Guarantee take precedence over the terms of this Agreement to the extent of any inconsistency.

11.3 The proceeds of any claim on the Completion Guarantee must be paid into the Production Account immediately on receipt and treated as part of the Budgeted Cost.

11.4 Any rebate that is paid to the Production Company or the Producer under the Completion Guarantee must first be applied by the Production Company in reduction of any Overage.

12. FOREIGN CURRENCY

12.1 If the Producer or the Production Company, on its own account or for the Investors, for the production of the Film:

12.1.1 is or may be required to make payments in a foreign currency; or

12.1.2 will use money payable in foreign currency to meet the Budgeted Cost, it must, by insurance, hedging or otherwise, ensure that it has sufficient money to make those payments from the Budgeted Cost in the foreign currency or that the foreign currency is sufficient, when aggregated with other contracted investments, to meet the Budgeted Cost.

12.2 Any gain (which includes a saving or benefit) realised by the Producer or the Production Company from foreign currency movements in respect of transactions the subject of Clause 12.1 must be paid promptly into the Production Account and in the first instance is to be applied against any aggregate loss referred to in Clause 12.3 and the balance, if any, shall be expended on the costs of production of the Film or otherwise as approved by the Investors. To the extent that a gain is expended on the costs of production, the Budgeted Cost increases accordingly but without change to any share of the Film Assets and Gross Receipts.

12.3 The Producer and the Production Company must bear any loss arising from foreign currency movements in respect of transactions the subject of Clause 12.1 and promptly pay into the Production Account a sum equal to the loss.

13. BANK ACCOUNTS

13.1 The Producer must keep the Investment Account open and the Production Company must keep the Production Account open until acceptance by the Investors of the Final Cost Report provided to them in accordance with Clause 14.5

- 13.2 The Investment Account and the Production Account must be used solely for the receipt and expenditure of the monies paid to the Producer and the Production Company respectively, for the purpose of producing, Completing and Marketing the Film according to the Budget.
- 13.3 The Producer must not close the Collection Account without the prior approval of the Investors.
- 13.4 The Collection Account must be used solely for the receipt of the monies derived from Marketing the Film and disbursement of Gross Receipts in accordance with the Recoupment Schedule.
- 13.5 Neither the Producer nor the Production Company may:
 - 13.5.1 deposit its own money in a Bank Account other than its contribution to the Budgeted Cost (if any);
 - 13.5.2 transfer money in any Bank Account to another account which is not a Bank Account; or
 - 13.5.3 deposit any money required by this Agreement to be deposited in a Bank Account, in any other account other than as described in Clause 5.2.
- 13.6 The Producer must not establish a bank account other than the Investment Account and the Collection Account, and the Production Company must not establish a bank account other than the Production Account, for the purposes of the Film without the Investors' prior consent.
- 13.7 All interest that accrues on money in the Production Account and the Investment Account must be applied by the Production Company and the Producer, respectively, as follows:
 - 13.7.1 first, towards the cost of producing the study guide for the Film.
 - 13.7.2 second, as a non-recoupable contribution towards the cost of producing the Film, which contribution shall not increase the Budgeted Cost.
 - 13.7.3 third, as Underage to be disbursed in accordance with Clause 2.1.6.
- 13.8 All interest that accrues on money in the Collection Account must be applied by the Producer in accordance with the Recoupment Schedule.
- 13.9 The Producer must, and Screen Australia may at any time and from time to time, nominate at least two signatories to the Investment Account and the Collection Account. The Producer must obtain Screen Australia's prior approval of its signatories and any replacement signatories. Any two signatories (provided that they are signatories nominated or approved by Screen Australia) may operate the Investment Account or the Collection Account provided that both signatories must sign for each transaction.
- 13.10 The Production Company must, and Screen Australia may at any time and from time to time, nominate at least two signatories to the Production Account. The Production Company must obtain Screen Australia's prior approval of its signatories and any replacement signatories. Any two signatories (provided that they are signatories nominated or approved by Screen Australia) may operate the Production Account provided that both signatories must sign for each transaction.
- 13.11 If Screen Australia believes an Event of Default has occurred, Screen Australia may, by written notice to the Producer or the Production Company (as the case may be) and the relevant bank, terminate the authority of all or any of the Producer's or the Production Company's signatories to operate all or any of the Bank Accounts.

- 13.12 The Production Company and the Producer must, on an Investor's written request, provide that Investor with copies of any or all of the bank statements for the Bank Accounts.

14. PRODUCER'S AND PRODUCTION COMPANY'S ACCOUNTING AND REPORTING OBLIGATIONS

- 14.1 Each of the Producer and the Production Company must:

- 14.1.1 keep, organise and safely store adequate and proper Records;
- 14.1.2 ensure its accounts are prepared according to the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) and generally accepted Australian accounting principles;
- 14.1.3 ensure that the Records show a true and fair view of all of its transactions in relation to the production and Marketing of the Film and of its financial and contractual position including, where applicable, its financial and contractual position in relation to the Investors and the third parties listed as providing funding in the Finance Plan; and
- 14.1.4 upon reasonable notice from an Investor, provide that Investor or its nominee with unrestricted access to, and copies of, the Records.

- 14.2 The Production Company must provide a written cost report to the Investors within 5 days of:

- 14.2.1 the start of post production, for the period commencing on the date of this Agreement or the start of preproduction, whichever is earlier, and ending on the last day of principal photography; and
- 14.2.2 the rough cut, for the period commencing on the start of post production and ending on the last day of post production, with each date referred to in this Clause 14.2 being as set out in the Production Particulars Schedule.

- 14.3 Each report provided by the Production Company under Clause 14.2 must be in a form acceptable to the Investors and must, without limitation to the foregoing, include in relation to the Film:

- 14.3.1 a cost report;
- 14.3.2 a trial balance;
- 14.3.3 a statement of Investors' investment funds identifying any interest earned on money in the Collection Account, the Investment Account and the Production Account and any gain realised from foreign currency movements; and
- 14.3.4 any other matters that the Investors may require.

- 14.4 The Producer and the Production Company must:

- 14.4.1 provide each Investor promptly on request with an explanation of any matter related to the production of the Film; and

- 14.4.2 at the request of any Investor, meet with that Investor to discuss any matters concerning the production of the Film. Meetings shall occur at convenient times and places and shall not interfere with the production of the Film. Any costs incurred by the Investor in attending the meeting shall be met by the Investor.
- 14.5 Within 3 months following the Completion Date the Production Company must promptly deliver to the Investors a Final Cost Report together with a Statutory Declaration.
- 14.6 The Final Cost Report must address the following matters:
 - 14.6.1 income and expenditure including, without limitation, sums payable and receivable concerning production of the Film (using the categories in the Budget) and a comparison of those sums with provisions in the Budget on an item by item basis;
 - 14.6.2 reconciliation of the Production Account and the Investment Account;
 - 14.6.3 assets, liabilities and investments acquired or incurred by the Producer and any Investors relating to production of the Film;
 - 14.6.4 satisfaction of debtors and creditors of the production;
 - 14.6.5 that purchased Production Assets have been disposed of at an arms length price;
 - 14.6.6 any overage or underage; the name of each recipient of a share of underage and the sum received;
 - 14.6.7 interest accrued on money in the Production Account and the Investment Account;
 - 14.6.8 any gain realised from foreign currency movements; and
 - 14.6.9 any sums paid or payable under the Completion Guarantee.
- 14.7 The Final Cost Report shall, on acceptance by the Investors, be conclusive and binding on the parties to this Agreement, unless there is manifest error.
- 14.8 The Producer and the Production Company agree that Screen Australia may, at its own cost, appoint an auditor to carry out an audit of the Producer and the Production Company in relation to the Film.
- 14.9 The Producer and the Production Company agree to provide Screen Australia or any auditor appointed by Screen Australia pursuant to Clause 14.8 with unrestricted access to, and copies of, the Records for the purpose of Clause 14.8.

15. INSURANCE

- 15.1 The Production Company and the Producer must effect and maintain the following insurances in relation to the production and Marketing of the Film:
 - 15.1.1 all usual and customary insurances that it would be prudent to obtain concerning production and Marketing of the Film;
 - 15.1.2 any other insurance that the Investors or a Marketplace Contributor may reasonably require.
- 15.2 All insurances must be:

- 15.2.1 in the name of the Production Company or Producer (as applicable), with the Investors named as interested parties;
- 15.2.2 on competitive terms and not subject to material exclusions or other unusual terms;
- 15.2.3 with reputable insurers;
- 15.2.4 for the full insurable value of the risk; and
- 15.2.5 for periods and risks for which it would be prudent to insure.
- 15.3 The Producer or the Production Company must pay all insurance premiums from or prior to the first Instalment.
- 15.4 If requested in writing by an Investor, the Producer and the Production Company must promptly provide that Investor with receipts for payment of all the insurances required by this Agreement and all cover notes and policies upon issue.
- 15.5 If any circumstances arise which would enable a claim to be made on any insurance policy in relation to the Film, the Production Company or Producer (as applicable) must:
 - 15.5.1 promptly make a claim; and
 - 15.5.2 actively pursue that claim.
- 15.6 Subject to the Completion Guarantee and the relevant insurance policy, the Producer or the Production Company (as applicable) must pay the proceeds of any insurance claim relating to the production of the Film, immediately upon receipt, into the Production Account or, if the Production Account has been closed, the Collection Account and apply those proceeds as follows:
 - 15.6.1 first, subject to Clause 12.3, in payment of reasonable costs and expenses in making and processing the claim;
 - 15.6.2 second, in repayment of any advance made by the Investors beyond their obligations to invest in the Film (in proportion to their respective contributions to any advance), with any agreed interest;
 - 15.6.3 third, to meet the costs of production of the Film; and
 - 15.6.4 fourth, as Underage.

16. CREDITS

- 16.1 The Investors must receive the credits set out in Part A of the Credits Schedule.
- 16.2 Before the completion of the titles of the Film, the Producer or the Production Company must provide in writing to each Investor the full credit roll for approval of the Investors' credits.
- 16.3 Before completion of the titles of the Film, any Investor may direct the Producer or the Production Company to remove its credits from the Film and not to use its name and logo in advertising and promotion of the Film.
- 16.4 The Producer and the Production Company must acknowledge the Investors' role in financing the Film in any interviews, press conferences, industry events including award nights, or other promotional or press meetings in which the Film is discussed by or under the authority of the Producer.

17. COPYRIGHT NOTICE

The Film must contain a complete and effective copyright notice in the form set out in Part B of the Credits Schedule.

18. DELIVERY MATERIALS

- 18.1 The Producer and the Production Company must provide to each Investor the respective Investor Delivery Materials on the Delivery Date or as otherwise specified in the Delivery Materials Schedule.
- 18.2 The Producer and the Production Company must make full and timely Delivery to each Marketing Licensee as required by each Marketing Agreement.
- 18.3 The Producer or the Production Company must advise Screen Australia when Delivery to each Marketplace Contributor occurs.
- 18.4 The Producer and the Production Company must provide to its chosen Study Guide Provider the Study Guide Delivery Materials on the Delivery Date or as otherwise specified in the Delivery Materials Schedule.

19. MARKETING THE FILM

- 19.1 The Investors grant the Producer an exclusive licence of the Film Assets throughout the world to Market the Film subject to the terms of this Agreement. The Producer may not receive any commissions for Marketing the Film without Screen Australia's prior written approval.
- 19.2 The exclusive licence for Marketing the Film commences on the date of this Agreement and, subject to this Agreement, continues until the expiration of the term of the Copyright.
- 19.3 The Producer must Market the Film to maximum commercial advantage of the Investors consistent with good business judgment and sound commercial practice.
- 19.4 The interests of the Producer acquired by Clause 19.1 are contractual only and do not create any proprietary interest in the Film Assets in favour of the Producer.
- 19.5 Except as provided for in the Marketing Agreements, the Producer must:
 - 19.5.1 join and register the Film with Screenrights for the purpose of collecting statutory remuneration under the Copyright Act 1968 (Cth) in Australia and New Zealand;
 - 19.5.2 appoint Screenrights International, or other collection agent approved by Screen Australia, as the Producer's agent for the purpose of joining and registering the Film with all relevant collecting societies for the rest of world; and
 - 19.5.3 register and obtain an International Standard Audiovisual Number (ISAN) for the Film by the commencement of post production.

19.6 The Producer must not authorise any other person to join and register the Film with any collection agency or to collect any fees or royalties from any collection agency without Screen Australia's prior consent.

19.7 Subject to:

19.7.1 any limitations set out in the Transaction Documents or in any other Marketing Agreements approved by the Investors; and

19.7.2 any contractual restrictions in relation to performers or the use of any copyright work or other subject matter included in the Film, as notified by the Producer to the Investors in writing, the Producer agrees that:

19.7.3 the Investors may use the Film and the Marketing Materials, for their own corporate or promotional purposes, provided such use is in accordance with the following:

(a) the whole Film may be used for screenings for members of the Board, staff and a limited number of invited guests and Parliamentary screenings;

(b) excerpts of the Film of no more than 3 minutes in aggregate may be used for showreels and for any online use. For the avoidance of doubt, online use includes, without limitation, websites, YouTube and Facebook;

(c) Screen Australia's promotional rights, extend to the promotion of the Australian screen industry; and

(d) Investors may require access to the Marketing Materials (including, without limitation, still photographs, trailers and promotional reels) before or after Completion of the Film for the purposes of this clause; and 19.7.4 in addition to the rights contained in Clause 19.7.3(d), it shall provide to Screen Australia all Marketing Materials (including, without limitation, still photographs, trailers and promotional reels) as soon as they become available. Screen Australia agrees that it will comply with any restrictions on the use of such Marketing Materials (which may include restrictions as to the timing of release or the way in which they may be made available), which are notified by the Producer or a Marketing Licensee on the Producer's behalf to Screen Australia.

20. MARKETING INFORMATION, CONSULTATION AND REPORTS

20.1 The Producer must deliver to the Investors:

20.1.1 Marketing Reports; and

20.1.2 copies of all Marketing Agreements not previously delivered to the Investors, at the following times:

20.1.3 annually for three years after the Delivery Date; and thereafter

20.1.4 upon request by Screen Australia up until the Screen Australia Reversion Date; and 20.1.5 on the Screen Australia Reversion Date.

20.2 The Producer must:

20.2.1 give the Investors reasonable prior notice of any film festival screening of the Film;

20.2.2 keep the Investors informed about the organisation of, and invite the Investors to attend, the Australian premiere of the Film, and shall consult with Screen Australia to ensure, to the best of the Producer's ability, that the Australian Government's requirements (which may include access to tickets and invitations to functions) are incorporated into the marketing plan for such premiere screenings and for premiere screenings in any other Major Territory;

20.2.3 provide Screen Australia with details of all festival participation, nominations and awards related to the Film as soon as the information becomes available; and 20.2.4 at the request of Screen Australia, provide information or an explanation of any matter related to the Marketing of the Film.

21. MARKETING AGREEMENTS

Matters which must be included in each Marketing Agreement

21.1 The Producer must ensure that each Marketing Agreement contains:

21.1.1 a reservation of the rights in the Film held by the Investors set out in clause 19.7;

21.1.2 an obligation on the part of the Marketing Licensee to provide to the Producer or its nominee no less frequently than the Producer is required to report under this Agreement up to the Screen Australia Reversion Date:

(a) reports on the Marketing of the Film in an acceptable industry standard format;

(b) a copy of each further Marketing Agreement entered into by the Marketing Licensee; and

(c) a copy of each report received by the Marketing Licensee in relation to the Marketing of the Film;

21.1.3 except where the consideration payable under the Marketing Agreement is a fixed fee, a right for the Producer or its nominee to audit the books and records of each Marketing Licensee (with the Marketing Licensee being liable for the cost of the audit in the event that a significant underpayment is revealed), with minimal restrictions upon the:

(a) choice of auditor;

(b) time for initiating an audit;

(c) reporting periods that may be the subject of an audit; and

21.1.4 in the case of a Marketing Agreement which is a sales agency agreement, an obligation on the part of the sales agent in favour of the Producer or its nominee in substantially the same terms as the Producer's obligations under Clauses 21.2 and 21.4.

Exercise of audit rights under Marketing Agreements

- 21.2 The Producer must exercise its rights of audit under any Marketing Agreement at the request of Screen Australia (and Screen Australia must provide notification to the other Investors). Subject to Clauses 21.1.3 and 21.3, any audit undertaken at Screen Australia's request will be at the cost of Screen Australia and, in relation to any such audit, the Producer must comply with all reasonable directions of Screen Australia including as to the choice of auditor and the negotiation and resolution of any claims arising from the audit. Without limiting the foregoing, the Producer must not settle any such claim without Screen Australia's prior approval.

Recoupment of costs of an audit

- 21.3 Where Screen Australia pays the cost of any audit undertaken pursuant to 21.2, Screen Australia will be entitled to recoup such costs in first position out of the proceeds of any claim arising from the audit. Before any disbursement of the proceeds of any claim is made to the investors, Screen Australia is entitled to be repaid the costs of the audit.

Breach of Marketing Agreements

- 21.4 The Producer must immediately notify the Investors of any breach of a Marketing Agreement of which it becomes aware. If, as a result of a notification by the Producer or otherwise, Screen Australia becomes aware of a breach of a Marketing Agreement, Screen Australia may give, and the Producer must comply with, reasonable directions to the Producer in relation to the breach, including directions that the Producer, at the Producer's cost:
- 21.4.1 take such steps as directed by Screen Australia to protect and enforce the Producer's rights set out in the relevant Marketing Agreement;
 - 21.4.2 without limitation to the foregoing, exercise its right to terminate that agreement;
 - 21.4.3 execute all such documents and take such other steps as Screen Australia reasonably requires, including in relation to any dispute resolution procedure or proceedings, in order to give effect to the Producer's obligations under this Clause; and
 - 21.4.4 where the Producer is not a party to the Marketing Agreement which has been breached, the Producer must comply with any reasonable directions by Screen Australia in relation to the Producer's rights under any related Marketing Agreement.
- 21.5 Screen Australia must not give directions to the Producer under Clause 21.4, without taking steps to consult with the other Investors, where reasonably practicable.
- 21.6 Without limiting Clause 21.4, the Producer must comply with Screen Australia's reasonable directions in relation to any negotiations with respect to a breach of a Marketing Agreement and must not settle a claim of breach without Screen Australia's prior approval.

22. MARKETING EXPENSES AND MARKETING BUDGET

- 22.1 The Producer must obtain Screen Australia's prior written approval of the Marketing Expenses set out at Part 2 of the Marketing Expenses Schedule. Subject to the foregoing, Marketing Expenses may be recouped from Gross Receipts in accordance with the Recoupment Schedule.
- 22.2 The Producer must provide to Screen Australia and obtain Screen Australia's prior written approval of any Marketing Budget provided by a Marketing Licensee.

23. USE OF UNDERLYING RIGHTS

- 23.1 The Producer must obtain Screen Australia's prior approval before it exercises, or authorises anyone else to exercise, all or any part of the Underlying Rights (except those rights described in paragraphs 1.1(a)(i), 1.1(a)(iii) and 1.1(a)(iv) of the definition of Ancillary Rights).
- 23.2 For the avoidance of doubt, any agreement which confers the right to:
- 23.2.1 exercise the Ancillary Rights described in paragraphs 1.1(a)(ii), 1.1(b), 1.1(c) and 1.1(d) of the definition of Ancillary Rights; and/or
 - 23.2.2 make or exploit (or authorise a third party to make or exploit) a Sequel, Spin-Off or Remake,
- requires Screen Australia's prior approval;
- 23.3 Screen Australia's approval may be withheld at its discretion or given on terms.
- 23.4 In the event that Screen Australia approves an exercise of the Underlying Rights which involves the right to make or exploit a Sequel, Spin Off or Remake, subject to Clause 23.5, the Investors grant to the Producer an exclusive licence in their share of the Film Assets throughout the world to make and exploit any such Sequel, Remake or Spin Off.
- 23.5 If the right to make a Sequel, Spin Off or Remake approved by Screen Australia is to be exercised by the Producer or a Related Entity:
- 23.5.1 the Producer shall be liable to pay a Sequel Fee in accordance with Clause 24; and
 - 23.5.2 the licence set out in Clause 23.4 will only take effect upon payment of such Sequel Fee.

24. SEQUELS, SPIN-OFFS OR REMAKES

- 24.1 If any Sequel, Spin Off or Remake is commissioned and is to be produced by the Producer or a Related Entity, the participants in the Sequel Revenue Shares (Sequel Participants) must receive a fee, to be calculated as a percentage of the budgeted cost of each and every Sequel, Spin Off or Remake (Sequel Fee) as follows:
- 24.1.1 1.5% for feature films uncapped; and
- subject to a cap of $125,000:
- 24.1.2 1.5% for adult television or documentary series of less than six (6) episodes which includes, for the avoidance of doubt, single episode programs;
 - 24.1.3 1.25% for adult television or documentary series of six (6) or more episodes; and

- 24.1.4 1.25% for children's television programs.
- 24.2 The Sequel Fee must:
- 24.2.1 be paid to the Sequel Participants in accordance with the Sequel Revenue Shares;
 - 24.2.2 be applied toward the recoupment of each Sequel Participant's Investment;
 - 24.2.3 form part of the budget of each and every Sequel, Spin Off or Remake; and
 - 24.2.4 be payable no later than the commencement of principal photography or, where applicable, principal production of each and every Sequel, Spin Off or Remake.
- 24.3 If any Sequel, Spin Off or Remake is commissioned and is to be produced by the Producer or a Related Entity and the amount paid for the right to make such Sequel Spin Off or Remake is greater than the amount of the Sequel Fee then such additional amount shall form part of Gross Receipts and shall be disbursed in accordance with the Recoupment Schedule.
- 24.4 Where a Sequel, Spin Off or Remake is commissioned and is to be produced by an entity other than the Producer or a Related Entity (Unrelated Production Company), any licence fee or other consideration payable by the Unrelated Production Company for the rights to produce such Sequel, Spin-Off or Remake shall form part of Gross Receipts and shall be disbursed in accordance with the Recoupment Schedule.
- 24.5 Where the right to make a Sequel, Spin Off or Remake is optioned by either the Producer, a Related Entity or an Unrelated Production Company, any option fee, advance or other consideration payable for such option shall form part of Gross Receipts and shall be disbursed in accordance with the Recoupment Schedule.
- 24.6 For the avoidance of doubt:
- 24.6.1 the entitlement to receive a Sequel Fee does not entitle the Sequel Participants to participate in any revenues generated by the exploitation of a Sequel, Spin Off or Remake.
 - 24.6.2 where the right to make a Sequel, Spin Off or Remake is licensed to an Unrelated Production Company under a Marketing Agreement or by the Producer, no Sequel Fee is payable and Clause 24.4 applies.

25. COLLECTING AND DISBURSING GROSS RECEIPTS

- 25.1 The Investors are entitled to a share of Gross Receipts in the proportions set out in the Recoupment Schedule.
- 25.2 The Investors appoint the Producer to receive Gross Receipts, to operate the Collection Account and to disburse Gross Receipts according to the Recoupment Schedule. The Producer must not authorise any person to receive Gross Receipts without the prior approval of the Investors.
- 25.3 The Producer must pay, and direct all Marketing Licensees under Marketing Agreements to which the Producer is a party to pay, all Gross Receipts directly into the Collection Account.

- 25.4 The Producer must disburse Gross Receipts according to the Recoupment Schedule and provide a detailed statement in a form approved by the Investors to accompany each disbursement of Gross Receipts.
- 25.5 Subject to Clause 25.6, the Producer must disburse Gross Receipts at the same time as it sends each Marketing Report to the Investors under Clause 20.
- 25.6 The Producer is not required to disburse Gross Receipts if the amount available for disbursement at the relevant time is less than $2,500, unless an Investor calls for a disbursement.
- 25.7 Any amount of Gross Receipts not disbursed pursuant to Clause 25.6 must be included in the first disbursement made by the Producer after Gross Receipts available for disbursement exceeds $2,500.
- 25.8 Screen Australia assigns to the Producer its right to receive a share of any Screenrights Income.

26. REVERSION OF SCREEN AUSTRALIA'S ENTITLEMENT TO GROSS RECEIPTS

- 26.1 Subject to and in consideration of the Producer complying with all the terms of this Agreement (including this Clause 26), Screen Australia acknowledges and agrees that the following provisions of this Clause 26 shall apply on and from the Screen Australia Reversion Date.
- 26.2 Screen Australia agrees to assign to the Producer:
- 26.2.1 its right to receive Gross Receipts as set out in Clause 25.1;
- 26.2.2 its right to receive a share of any Sequel Fee or other Gross Receipts as set out in Clause 23;
- 26.2.3 its interest in the Film Assets other than the Screen Australia Retained Interest, in each case with effect on and from the Screen Australia Reversion Date. The parties acknowledge and agree that this clause will be sufficient to give effect to that assignment.
- 26.3 The parties acknowledge and agree that references to Screen Australia within the Recoupment Schedule shall be deemed to be references to the Producer in respect of all entitlements to Gross Receipts arising as and from the Screen Australia Reversion Date.
- 26.4 Notwithstanding the foregoing and for the avoidance of doubt, Screen Australia will retain the right to receive, and to bring an action against the Producer to recover, Gross Receipts to which Screen Australia became entitled prior to the Screen Australia Reversion Date.
- 26.5 After the Screen Australia Reversion Date:
- 26.5.1 Screen Australia shall continue to be entitled to the benefit of all of its promotional and crediting entitlements under this Agreement;
- 26.5.2 the Producer shall continue to be entitled to the exclusive licence granted by Screen Australia under Clause 19.1 and shall not be required to seek the prior consent or approval of Screen Australia with respect to any Marketing Agreement or any agreement in respect of the Underlying Rights;

- 26.5.3 the Producer's obligations in respect of any representation, warranty and indemnity given by it under this Agreement shall remain in effect in accordance with this Agreement; and
 - 26.5.4 save as expressly provided for in this Agreement or as necessary to enable Screen Australia to exercise and enjoy the rights and entitlements on its part which are expressly preserved under this Clause 26, the Producer shall be released from all of its obligations to Screen Australia under this Agreement which have not yet been discharged by performance.
- 26.6 For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this Clause 26 affects the rights or entitlements of any Investor other than Screen Australia or the obligations of the Producer to any Investor other than Screen Australia.

27. REMEDY OF AN EVENT OF DEFAULT

If an Event of Default occurs which in Screen Australia's reasonable opinion can be rectified, Screen Australia in consultation with the other Investors may give notice to the Producer and the Production Company specifying the Event of Default and requiring the Producer and the Production Company to rectify the Event of Default within ten (10) Business Days of the date on which the notice is deemed sufficiently served in accordance with the Notices Schedule or within such longer period as is specified in the notice.

28. DEFAULT AND TERMINATION

- 28.1 If an Event of Default is incapable of rectification in Screen Australia's reasonable opinion or if an Event of Default is not rectified within the time required by any notice given in accordance with Clause 27, Screen Australia may, after consultation with the other Investors and by notice to the Producer and the Production Company (and copied to the other Investors), terminate the:
- 28.1.1 Production Company's right to produce and Complete the Film as set out in Clause 8.4;
 - 28.1.2 Producer's right to Market the Film as set out in Clause 19.1; and
 - 28.1.3 Producer's appointment to collect and disburse Gross Receipts as set out in Clause 25.2.
- 28.2 If Screen Australia gives notice under Clause 28.1, in addition to any other remedies available to Screen Australia at law or in equity, Screen Australia may, by notice to the parties to this Agreement, require that any of the following provisions apply:
- 28.2.1 the Investors, the Producer and the Production Company remain bound by this Agreement until the Investors retain another producer on terms satisfactory to those Investors whose Investments contributed up to the date of termination represent a majority of the total Investments contributed to that date.
 - 28.2.2 if another producer is not retained within 60 days after the Producer's and the Production Company's rights are terminated:
 - (a) the Producer and the Production Company must return the balances of the Bank Accounts operated by them to the Investors and any Marketing Licensees who have provided licence fees to the production, in proportion to their respective investments and licence fees, contributed up to the date of the notice given under Clause 28.1; and

- (b) Screen Australia has the right to sell all the Film Assets and return the proceeds of sale to the Investors in the same proportions.
- 28.2.3 The Producer must, to the extent required by Screen Australia, assign to Screen Australia, or Screen Australia's nominee, its rights in all Marketing Agreements and any other sub licences granted under this Agreement.
- 28.2.4 The Producer and the Production Company must, to the extent required by Screen Australia, assign to Screen Australia or its nominee their interests in the Film Assets.
- 28.2.5 The Production Company and Producer must deliver to Screen Australia, or Screen Australia's nominee, all Film Assets and any other materials relating to the production or Marketing of the Film in its possession or control.
- 28.2.6 The Production Company and Producer must deliver to Screen Australia, or Screen Australia's nominee, all bank books, bank statements, cheque books, cash withdrawal cards and other materials relating to the Bank Accounts in their possession or control.
- 28.2.7 The Production Company and Producer must ensure that their signatories cease to operate the Bank Accounts and must deliver to Screen Australia, or Screen Australia's nominee, any completed forms to remove the relevant signatories from the Bank Accounts.
- 28.2.8 The Production Company and Producer must deliver to Screen Australia, or Screen Australia's nominee, all Records, including agreements (whether finalised or under negotiation), deal memos and other documents relating to the production and Marketing of the Film in its possession or control.
- 28.2.9 The Production Company and Producer must execute all documents and do everything necessary or required by Screen Australia to vest in and secure to Screen Australia or its nominee, the rights granted to the Production Company and the Producer and terminated under this Agreement, which may include the novation, in favour of Screen Australia or its nominee, of any agreement related to the production of the Film that is not yet fully discharged by performance at the time of termination of this Agreement.
- 28.2.10 The Production Company and Producer irrevocably grant to Screen Australia and any persons authorised by Screen Australia a licence to have access to any premises to take possession of all Film Assets and to exercise its rights according to this Agreement.
- 28.2.11 The Production Company and Producer irrevocably grant to Screen Australia and each of its officers severally, a power of attorney, as the attorney thinks fit, to exercise all rights, execute and deliver all documents and do all things that the Producer or the Production Company could have done according to any Transaction Document or other Marketing Agreement or otherwise in respect of the Film if the Producer's and the Production Company's rights acquired by this Agreement had not been terminated.

29. GENERAL PROVISIONS

- 29.1 Nothing in this Agreement constitutes a partnership or joint venture between the Investors, the Production Company and the Producer nor renders one of them liable for any debt or obligation of another.

- 29.2 Neither the Producer nor the Production Company may enter into any contract nor incur any liability on any Investor's behalf, or represent that it has authority to do so.
- 29.3 The failure of one of a party to rely on or enforce a provision of this Agreement must not be construed as a waiver by that party of its right to subsequently rely on or enforce that provision.
- 29.4 Subject to Clause 29.5, each party must keep the terms of this Agreement and all confidential information disclosed to it concerning this Agreement (the 'Confidential Information') confidential and not disclose the Confidential Information without the prior consent of each other party, except as required by law. Where a party considers that it is bound to disclose the Confidential Information by law, it must first inform each other party and comply with any reasonable request of each other party in relation to the disclosure.
- 29.5 Each of the Production Company and Producer may disclose the Confidential Information to its financiers, advisors, accountants and Marketplace Contributors provided such parties are subject to an undertaking, on terms no less restrictive than those in Clause 29.4, to keep the Confidential Information confidential.
- 29.6 This Agreement may only be varied in writing and signed by the parties.
- 29.7 Neither the Production Company nor the Producer may:
- 29.7.1 assign or agree to assign,
 - 29.7.2 create or agree to create any Security Interest over,
- any of its benefits, rights, powers, duties or obligations under this Agreement, including its interest in the Film Assets, without the Investors' prior consent.
- 29.8 No Investor may without the consent of all Investors, register or seek to register, any "Security Interest" within the meaning of the Personal Property Securities Act, 2009 (Cth) in relation to the Film Assets and Gross Receipts."
- 29.9 Each party must do everything necessary to give effect to this Agreement and the transactions contemplated by it and cause relevant third parties to do the same, at its own expense unless the cost is included in the Budget.
- 29.10 This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts and all such counterparts taken together must be deemed to constitute one and the same instrument.
- 29.11 This Agreement supersedes all prior agreements, representations negotiations, and correspondence with respect to the transactions contemplated in this Agreement and comprises the entire agreement between the parties.
- 29.12 Any written notice, document, or other communication to be served or given to a party must be served or given in accordance with the Notices Schedule.
- 29.13 Each Investor, the Production Company and the Producer agree:
- 29.13.1 that each Transaction Document and Marketing Agreement to which it is a party is not inconsistent with this Agreement;
 - 29.13.2 that, to the extent of any inconsistency, the terms of this Agreement prevail; and
 - 29.13.3 not to amend any Transaction Document without the Investors' prior consent.

30. GOVERNING LAW

This Agreement will be governed by and construed in accordance with the law of the State of New South Wales and the parties agree to submit to the jurisdiction of the courts of that State in all such matters.

31. GST

31.1 The parties agree that all amounts referred to in this Agreement are exclusive of GST.

31.2 If GST is imposed upon any supply made under this Agreement (Taxable Supply) then the recipient of the Taxable Supply will pay to the supplier, in addition to any consideration payable for that Taxable Supply under this Agreement (the "Consideration"), the amount of GST imposed upon the Taxable Supply.

31.3 Any increased amount under Clause 31.2 will be payable to the supplier in the same manner and at the same time as the Consideration is payable to the supplier, provided that the recipient has received from the supplier a tax invoice in the form required by the GST legislation, setting out the amount of GST payable by the supplier on the Taxable Supply, and evidence of the supplier's registration for the purposes of GST. In all cases, any increased amount under Clause 31.2 must be paid within 14 days of receipt of such tax invoice.
