- 376-C Production expenditure and qualifying Australian production expenditure
- 376-D Certificates for films and other matters

Subdivision 376-A—Guide to Division 376

376-1 What this Division is about

Companies may be entitled to 1 of 3 refundable tax offsets in relation to Australian expenditure incurred in making films. The offsets are designed to support and develop the Australian screen media industry by providing concessional tax treatment for Australian expenditure.

Table of sections

- 376-2 Key features of the tax offsets for Australian production expenditure on films
- 376-5 Structure of this Division

376-2 Key features of the tax offsets for Australian production expenditure on films

- (1) The 3 tax offsets are:
- (a) a refundable tax offset for Australian expenditure in making an Australian film (the producer offset); and
 - (b) a refundable tax offset for Australian expenditure in making any film (the location offset); and
 - (c) a refundable tax offset for Australian expenditure on post, digital and visual effects production for any film (the PDV offset).

- (2) A company is only entitled to one of these offsets in relation to a film.
 - (3) The amount of the offset is determined as a percentage of certain Australian expenditure incurred by a company in producing the film:
 - (a) the amount of the producer offset is 40% of the company's qualifying Australian production expenditure on the film if the film is a feature film, and 20% of such expenditure if the film is not a feature film; and
 - (b) the amount of the location offset is 16.5% of the company's qualifying Australian production expenditure on the film; and
 - (c) the amount of the PDV offset is 30% of the company's qualifying Australian production expenditure on the film that relates to post, digital and visual effects production for the film.
 - (4) One of the requirements for entitlement to these offsets is that a company must be issued with a certificate for the film. The certificate will state the amount of Australian expenditure on which the offset will be determined.
 - (5) The offset is claimed by a company in its income tax return.

376-5 Structure of this Division

- (1) Subdivision 376-B tells you about the different tax offsets available for films, who can get each offset and what conditions must be met to get each offset. It also tells you how to work out the amount of each offset.
- (2) Subdivision 376-C explains what is meant by:
 - (a) production expenditure on a film; and
 - (b) qualifying Australian production expenditure on a film.It also contains some rules for quantifying expenditure.
- (3) Subdivision 376-D deals with a number of administrative matters:
 - (a) applying for a certificate for a film; and
 - (b) the issue and revocation of a certificate for a film; and

- (c) the making of rules by the Arts Minister (including rules for the establishment of the Film Certification Advisory Board) and the film authority; and
 - (d) review of decisions of the Arts Minister and the film authority; and
 - (e) amendment of assessments following the revocation of a certificate for a film.

Production expenditure—common rules

376-125 Production expenditure—general test

- (1) A company's production expenditure on a *film is expenditure that the company incurs to the extent to which it:
 - (a) is incurred in, or in relation to, the *making of the film; or
 - (b) is reasonably attributable to:
 - (i) the use of equipment or other facilities for; or
 - (ii) activities undertaken in;
the making of the film.
- (2) The making of a *film means the doing of the things necessary for the production of the first copy of the film.
- (3) The making of a *film includes:
 - (a) pre-production activities in relation to the film; and
 - (b) post-production activities in relation to the film; and
 - (c) any other activities undertaken to bring the film up to the state where it could reasonably be regarded as ready to be distributed, broadcast or exhibited to the general public.
- (4) The making of a *film does not include:
 - (a) developing the proposal for the *making of the film; or
 - (b) arranging or obtaining finance for the film; or
 - (c) distributing the film (other than the activities listed in paragraphs (a) to (e) of item 7 of the table in subsection 376-170(2)); or
 - (d) promoting the film.
- (5) Without limiting subsection (1), a company's production expenditure on a *film:
 - (a) may be expenditure that is incurred in the income year for which the *tax offset is sought or in an earlier income year;
and
 - (b) may be expenditure of either a capital or a revenue nature;
and

(c) may be expenditure that gives rise to a deduction.
Paragraph (c) has effect subject to item 10 of the table in section 376-135 (which deals with capital allowances).

(6) If:

(a) a company:

(i) *holds a *depreciating asset; and

(ii) uses the asset, while held, in the *making of a *film; and

(b) deductions in relation to the asset are available under Division 40 (which deals with capital allowances);

the production expenditure of the company on the film includes an amount equal to the decline in the value of the asset to the extent to which that decline is reasonably attributable to the use of the asset in the making of the film (the film proportion). The decline in value of the asset is to be worked out using Division 40.

Note: Under item 10 of the table in section 376-135, expenditure that sets or increases the cost of the asset does not count as production expenditure.

(7) If a *balancing adjustment event occurs for the asset before the film is *completed:

(a) if the asset's *termination value is more than its *adjustable value just before the event occurred—the production expenditure of the company on the film is reduced by the film proportion of the difference; or

(b) if the asset's termination value is less than its adjustable value just before the event occurred—the production expenditure of the company on the film includes the film proportion of the difference.

376-130 Production expenditure—special qualifying Australian production expenditure

Expenditure of a company is also production expenditure of the company on a *film if it is *qualifying Australian production expenditure of the company on the film under section 376-150 or 376-165.

Note: This means that the special qualifying Australian production expenditure in sections 376-150 and 376-165 is taken into account both in working out the total amount of the company's qualifying Australian production expenditure and in working out the total amount of all the company's production expenditure on the film.
