

Upcoming Production Report October 2018

This is a select list of TV drama in pre-production, production or post-production in Australia.

Please note:

- Producers and production companies can be inundated with calls regarding work and may not welcome unsolicited calls. Their preference is to employ via crewing agencies.
- Where contact details are omitted in this report, they are unavailable for publication. Some producers and production companies request that their contact details are not published.
- Foreign productions predominantly employ a Line Producer to set up the production office in Australia two to three months (at the earliest) before principal photography date. Screen Australia will not be able to provide production office contact details before then.
- Please note that details for some titles are incomplete, particularly if they are in early stages of production.

You can also keep up to date with industry news and further upcoming production information through:

- IF (Inside Film) magazine (monthly and online): www.if.com.au (02) 9660 2113
- The Encore Directory and The Production Book contain lists of production companies, producers and crewing agencies.

And most of the state agencies list productions online:

Genres	Crime, Drama, Mystery
Producer	Victoria Madden, John Molloy
Director
Writer	Victoria Madden
Cast
Duration (mins)	400
Synopsis	The Gloaming is complex drama entwining three narrative strands. Firstly, it is a character-driven story about two past lovers that must overcome a tragedy and betrayal to work together. The crime story provides the spine of the series; a murder that leads our detectives to the past and a crime within a crime with sinister consequences. Then, sitting alongside these lines is a social commentary touching on a housing crisis and social marginalisation, issues affecting not just Tasmania but societies all around the world. These threads of character, crime and society combine to make for a rich, compelling, and haunting story with contemporary and universal relevance.

Synopsis	Twelve-year-old identical twins Dru and Kal are just like any other Australian boys living in Sydney in their first year of high school. Their parents are second generation Indian Australians and have embraced everything the country has to offer. But after a government- sponsored dental check-up, in which Kal is seen twice so that his twin, who has a crippling fear of dentists, can avoid another fainting episode, the Australian dream starts to unravel. The boys discover that a mysterious electronic device has been inserted into Kal twice, while Dru remains device-free and, therefore, undetectable. For what sinister ends is a democratic government secretly tracking and manipulating Australia's youth?

Synopsis HARDBALL is a 13 x 30min live action comedy series that follows fish-out-of-water MIKEY and his two misfit mates, SALWA and JERRY. Their goal? Make Mikey the sweetest-bestest-acest handball champ Western Sydney's ever seen. He's got the most powerful strike in the world, if only he could make the ball land in the right suburb!

Hardball is fast-paced, full of lol's and crammed with action-packed sport sequences - aimed squarely at 7 - 10 year olds, they'll be charmed by Mikey and his chums. While traversing the highs and lows of pre-teen life, Hardball explores themes of family, multiculturalism and acceptance. It's The Boy in a Dress meets Little Lunch with a sprinkling of Hunt for the Wilderpeople in a heart-warming and hilarious journey that will leave the audience wishing they'd gone to Mikey's school and had friends like him.
