

Theatrical distribution of Australian feature films 2009–2014

The following table lists distributors who have theatrically released two or more Australian films between 1 January 2009 and 1 April 2014, compiled based on data from the Motion Picture Distributors Association of Australia (MPDAA).

The list is not intended to be definitive, but rather provides a snapshot of companies that have consistently handled Australian films during the period. Other theatrical distributors continue to be active in handling both Australian and international titles in the local marketplace.
