

GUIDELINES

ENTERPRISE PEOPLE

OUT OF ROUND

Issued 25 July 2018

Screen Australia reserves the right to change its program guidelines from time to time. Please ensure you check the website for the latest version. These guidelines should be read in conjunction with Screen Australia's Terms of Trade.

WHY

- Enterprise People out of round provides funding to support a practitioner's career development with bespoke proposals that build the capacity of individuals who come from a diversity of backgrounds.
- The program is intended for high-level placements that will greatly benefit the individual such as those previously funded by Screen Australia through the Talent Development program – producer/development executive Donna Chang with Ridley Scott's Scott Free Productions in London or producer Michael Cody with Brad Pitt's Plan B Entertainment in the US.

WHO

Applications must be made by an individual who:

- is a producer, director, writer, script editor, script consultant or development executive,
- meets the General Eligibility requirements set out in Screen Australia's Terms of Trade,
- has at least one relevant credit in their role on at least one project that has:
  - been selected to screen in competition at the following major international film festivals: Berlin, Busan, Cannes, Clermont-Ferrand, Critics Week Cannes, Hot Docs, IDFA, Sitges, Sundance, SXSW, Toronto, or Venice, or
  - received an Academy Award or Emmy nomination or an AACTA award nomination for best short film including fiction, non-fiction, Indigenous and animation, best director or best screenplay, or
  - received funding through Screen Australia's development or production programs

Only one application per person and/or company is eligible to apply.

Applicant or companies who have received funding through previous Enterprise programs are eligible to apply if they have completed their funding agreement.

WHAT

Up to $40,000 will be considered on a case-by-case basis.

HOW

You must discuss your application with a Screen Australia manager for your invitation to apply. Please contact Program Operations 1800 507 901 or enterprise@screenaustralia.gov.au

If you are invited to apply, you will need to submit:

- A proposal (maximum five single sided pages) that includes:
  - An outline of achievements as well as creative and career goals as an individual, or company
  - A brief history of your company and a description of its present position in the industry and what the placement will bring to your company
  - A detailed development plan – including a budget which breaks down the Screen Australia contribution as well as the company/alternative sources of finance, schedule and timeline, and where relevant information about the nominated candidate and their position
- Confirmation and information from any participating companies or individuals e.g. host company, mentor, workshop, lab or potential project opportunity.

Applications will be considered by Screen Australia executives and/or Industry Specialists as required.

Eligible applications will be assessed against the following equally weighted criteria:

- The suitability of the proposed candidate based on their track record and achievements to date as well as their commitment and demonstrated potential for development
- The strength of the development plan for the candidate including opportunities for business and/or skills development, nominated mentor(s), workshop or lab attendance benefits, screen credits and/or ongoing employment

Other factors, including availability of funds, and the gender and diversity of the applicants will also be taken into account.

Decisions on applications are final. Screen Australia will advise applicants in writing of the outcome of their application.

Terms of funding

Funding will be provided as a grant.

Successful applicants to Enterprise People will be eligible to apply for other forms of Screen Australia funding, including Enterprise Ideas. However, Screen Australia may not prioritise applications for other programs where the funding is for similar activities or initiatives to those supported under this program.

Funding recipients may be asked to provide material for case studies, program evaluation and/or participate in seminars or workshops to share their knowledge and experience.
